MIDDIE SPORTS REVIEW (August 24, 2009) 2009 SEASON KICKS OFF AS GOLF CONTINUES TO EXCEL

Golf – The Middie Golf team continued where it left off last season, capturing the title at the Admiral King Invitational, and tying for the title at the Pioneer Invitational during the first two weeks of competition. Senior Louis Elbert continues to shine as one of the top golfers in the area, as he was the medalist at Elyria, and finished in the top three at both the Brunswick Tee-Off Classic and the WSC Preview at Eagle Creek. Fellow Senior Travis Gregory has also posted good scores for the Middies, as they continue non-conference tournament play this week before starting WSC play next week as they look to defend the titles they have won in 2006, 2007, and 2008.

Girls Tennis – The Girls Tennis team opened with a tough 3-2 loss to Elyria last week, as the Middie netters opened the 2009 season against the Pioneers. The doubles teams of Ashley Taylor / Michael Evanish and Hannah Baumgartner / Alicia Freeman opened the 2009 season by posting straight set wins. The Middies continue play this week before heading into WSC Conference play next week.

Cross-Country– The Middie Harriers gear up to open the season this Saturday at the WSC Preview at Cahoon Park in Bay Village. The teams made great strides last year, and the girls’ are looking to build on their impressive third place finish in the always tough WSC.

Soccer – The Girls’ and Boys’ teams open the season this week at home, and will look to use a strong pre-season in striving to move up in the always tough WSC Soccer standings.

Football – The Middies travel to George Daniel Field on Friday evening to open the 2009 campaign against Admiral King, with the kickoff at 7 pm. Midview will be led by Senior All-County and WSC running back Josiah Holt and Senior all-WSC quarterback Brett Whitesel. Junior Tony Petrosky will lead the defense, as he is a returning second team all-WSC performer. The Middies are coming off a strong showing at Wellington on Friday evening and look to take the lead in the all-time series with Admiral King, which stands at 4-4 since the teams first squared off in 1986.

Volleyball – New Head Coach Jen Shouse will tune up the Middies for one more week before they get under way with the home opener on August 31 against Brunswick. The Middies will be featuring a young team, as graduation saw the Middies lose three first team performers. Midview will open the defense of their back-to-back titles on Tuesday against
